

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: We're going to watch the game!

Learning Outcome

Describe complicated or unusual events in the past through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What are your national team sports?
- Why do you think it's important to watch or participate in team sports?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use words like important.
- I can say and use words like different and interesting.
- I can use proper intonation when I'm sure and when I'm checking.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa wants to wear sneakers to the game!

* Another name for "sneakers" is running shoes.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: I can't wait to go to Boston! The shopping will be impressive and we get to see a live basketball game. What's the team called?
- Sally: The Boston Celtics. Don't they wear bright green, not dark green?
- Vanessa: I don't know! I've never been to a basketball game. Is it important to wear the colors?
- Sally: Yes. It's traditional to show team spirit, don't you think? Peter probably has a team jersey and we can paint green clovers on our faces. He'll be impressed if we do that.
- Vanessa: Why clovers?
- Sally: It's the team logo.
- Vanessa: This is going to be a different experience! Doesn't everyone stand up at the beginning of the game to sing the national anthem?
- Sally: Of course!
- Vanessa: Doesn't it make sense to wear comfortable sneakers?
- Sally: Yup. It's impossible to stay seated ... and stay quiet!
- Vanessa: I don't know if I'll understand the rules immediately. Won't you and Peter explain where the boundaries are and what the rules are?
- Sally: We'll explain, but generally the rules become clear as the game unfolds. Peter is going to be immensely happy that we got tickets to Wednesday's game! Aren't you excited?
- Vanessa: Yes, this will be a new cultural event for me!
- Sally: Basketball is definitely one of our national sports. This is going to be lots of fun!

Let's Practice!

Let's check your pronunciation!

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistake. Say the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

- This is going to be a different experience!
- There are different music festivals in Bogotá.
- Is everyone comfortable with the different teaching styles?
- I thought the theater performance was very interesting.
- I enjoyed learning about the rules in basketball. Now I find the sport really interesting.

Let's Practice!

Can you differentiate when someone is sure* and when someone is checking?

*When you are sure, your intonation goes down.

When you are checking, your intonation goes up.

Instructions: Put the words into the correct category.

- The Boston Celtics wear green, don't they?
- You're a big fan of the Celtics, aren't you?
- Doesn't it make sense to wear comfortable sneakers?
- The Boston Celtics are doing well this season, aren't they?
- It's important to wear your team's colors, don't you think?

Sure

Checking

Extension Activity

Write a dialogue about getting tickets for a game.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- You have bought tickets for you and a friend to go to a game.
- Write a dialogue asking your friend to go with you to the game.
- Use negative questions.
- Try to use one or two words that start with im-.
- Read the dialogue aloud with a partner and practice pronunciation.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I invite a friend to a game.

☐ ☐

I use negative questions.

☐ ☐

I say words with im-.

☐ ☐

I read the dialogue aloud paying careful attention to pronunciation.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- team spirit (noun): an exciting feeling or attitude to work or play with a group of people as a team e.g. It is impressive how the people who show team spirit encourage the football players to do their best.
- clover (noun): a small plant that usually has three round leaves e.g. I am a lucky guy! Although it is almost impossible to find a four-leaved clover, I found one yesterday!
- national anthem (noun): the official song of a country
e.g. I was impressed by the audience's respectful attitude towards the national anthem.
- to make sense (expression): to be practical and reasonable e.g. It makes sense to wear comfortable sneakers when walking for long distances.
- boundaries (noun): a limit that is traced to show the end and beginning of something e.g. The farm's boundary is marked by a tree line.
- immensely (adjective): to a great extent
e.g. Last week, he was immensely worried because he had lost his wallet.
- to unfold (verb): to develop e.g. We'll understand better as the drama unfolds.
- logo (noun): the image or symbol that represents an institution, a team, a company, etc.
e.g. The team's logo is a blue bird.

Learning Points

Words that start with im-

When you use im- at the beginning of a word, the second syllable is stressed.

Read these words out loud. Concentrate on the pronunciation. Stress the second syllable.

impossible

impressive

important

impressed

immediately

immensely

Examples:

- It's impossible to stay seated.
- The shopping will be impressive.
- Is it important to wear the colors?
- He'll be impressed if we do that.
- I don't know if I'll understand the rules immediately.
- Peter is going to be immensely happy.

Silent Syllables With Unstressed Vowels

Most words contain a syllable that is unstressed. Different is an example.

Read these words with unstressed syllables out loud. Concentrate on the pronunciation.

probably → (prob_ly)

different → (diff_rent)

everyone → (ev_ryone)

comfortable → (comf_tuble)

Wednesday → (Wens_day)

Note that the 'd' in Wednesday is also silent!

Examples:

- Peter probably has a team jersey.
- This is going to be a different experience.
- Doesn't everyone stand up at the beginning of the game to sing the national anthem?
- Doesn't it make sense to wear comfortable sneakers?
- We got tickets to Wednesday's game!

