

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

A date in Boston? How romantic!

Learning Outcome

Describe events through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you believe in love at first sight? Explain.
- Describe your idea of a good date and a bad date.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about feelings and reactions.
- I can encourage agreement.
- I can talk about things that happen or things that happened.

Let's Explore!

Peter falls in love with the Boston skyline!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Amy: Peter. Peter? Wake up. The movie is over.
Peter: What happened? I didn't fall asleep did I?
Amy: Yes. You snored through the last scene. You passed out before the couple decided to break up.
Peter: Oh gosh! I apologize. I want you to know that I did really enjoy the first half. Wasn't it romantic?
Amy: Actually, I was taken aback by how shallow the characters were. I cracked up a couple of times though.
Peter: So I guess you guys didn't like it much. It wasn't that good.
Amy: Hey, lighten up! I love criticizing films. You obviously didn't like it much either did you?
Peter: Not really, I guess.
Amy: It doesn't matter. Cheer up! I had fun seeing the movie with you. Aren't we going out to eat now?
Peter: Definitely! Let's try that little cafe around the corner.
Amy: Isn't it a beautiful evening? I could just fall in love ...
Peter: Really? You could fall in love ...
Amy: ... with the Boston skyline! What a great city!
Peter: Yeah. Don't you think the skyline is very romantic?
Amy: I'd say it's magical, but on another note my stomach is rumbling. Let's get dinner! Didn't you say it was just around the corner?
Peter: I most certainly did!

Let's Practice!

Amy and Peter talk about the film they watched.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentence. Put each word in the correct order.

1. nod / did / I / I? / didn't / off,

2. before / You / up. / break / passed / the / decided / to / couple / out

3. you / know / to / I / I / that / did / half. / first / want / enjoy / really / the

4. taken / I / were. / Actually, / was / characters / by / how / aback / shallow / the

5. like / guess / I / didn't / much. / it / So / you

Let's Practice!

What happened on the date?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Select all the sentences that are not true.

Peter didn't nod off. The couple in the film ended their relationship. Amy was not surprised about the characters. Peter stayed awake during the last scene. Amy thinks the characters were superficial.

Extension Activity

Watch a romantic movie.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Watch the movie The Notebook with a friend.
- Ask your friend negative questions to find out if they liked the movie. (e.g. Wasn't it good love story? or Didn't you think it was long?)
- Write a 150-word review of the movie.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I listen to and watch a movie.

☐
☐

I use the Simple Past tense to retell the story.

☐
☐

I use negative questions to gain confirmation on what a friend thought about the movie.

☐
☐

I write a review using the Simple Present and Simple Past tenses.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to snore (verb): to breathe loudly while sleeping
e.g. You snored through the last scene.
- to break up (verb): to end a relationship
e.g. The couple decided to break up.
- to be taken aback (verb): to be surprised
e.g. I was taken aback by how shallow the characters were.
- shallow (adjective): something that lacks intellect, interest and knowledge
e.g. I was taken aback by how shallow the characters were.
- obviously (adverb): in a way that is easily understood
e.g. You obviously didn't like it much either, did you?
- skyline (noun): the silhouette of a group of buildings seen against the sky e.g. The Boston skyline is wonderful.
- rumbling (verb): to make a deep, low sound
e.g. My stomach is rumbling. Let's get dinner!

Learning Points

Inseparable Phrasal Verbs

Phrasal verbs are two-part verbs consisting of a verb followed by an adverb particle (these look like prepositions, but do not have the same function in phrasal verbs). In some cases, it is not possible to separate the verb and the particle. These are called inseparable phrasal verbs.

Some phrasal verbs are used in passive form more often than they are in active form:

- I was taken aback by how shallow the characters were.

| Phrasal verb  | Meaning                         |
|---------------|---------------------------------|
| passed out    | lost consciousness; fell asleep |
| come out with | produce                         |
| taken aback   | surprised                       |
| nod off       | fall asleep                     |
| break up      | end a relationship              |

Examples:

- You passed out before the couple decided to break up.
- I didn't nod off did I?
- Actually, I was taken aback by how shallow the characters were.
- The things they came out with!

Learning Points

Negative Questions to Encourage Agreement

You use negative questions to confirm information you already know.

Wasn't it romantic?

You think it was romantic and you expect the answer to be 'yes'. You expect the person you are talking to will share your opinion.

Aren't we going out to eat now?

You expect to eat now and you expect that the other person will agree with you.

Examples:

- Wasn't it romantic?
- Aren't we going out to eat now?
- Isn't it a beautiful evening?
- Don't you think the skyline is very romantic?
- Didn't you say it was just around the corner?

