Let's Start!

Do you have the right outfit?

Learning Outcome

Describe events through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What's the most uncomfortable outfit you've ever worn?
- What type of costume would you wear if you had to go to a costume party?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about clothing, socializing and going out.
- I can show I understand someone's feelings or situation.
- I can encourage agreement.

Let's Explore!

People wore platform shoes in the '70s!

* "Platform shoes" are shoes with 3 to 10 centimeter soles.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: We're having a 1970s party for my dad. I need an outfit!
- Vanessa: You must be so pumped! You can wear funky clothes and listen to psychedelic music. Didn't people wear bell bottoms back then? They had platform shoes, wide lapels and everything was polyester!
- Sally: That's kind of gross, don't you think?
- Vanessa: I can dig it! I want to breeze into the party wearing funky patterns.
- Sally: And you can dance disco! I fell in love with it when I heard it.
- Vanessa: Mom is organizing everything to be authentically seventies. She's even seen about getting some seventies car!
- Sally: Awesome! Wouldn't it be fun to drive around in one of those? Your mom must be thoroughly enjoying the planning of this party!
- Sally: She must be feeling nostalgic.
- Vanessa: Wasn't that huge outdoor concert in the seventies?
- Sally: Yeah. Woodstock. They must be disappointed in the way society has turned out.
- Vanessa: What about your outfit? Aren't we supposed to figure that out now?
- Sally: We know what we want: Bell bottoms, a wide lapel shirt that's funky!
- Vanessa: You must be happy that you've figured out the perfect outfit!
- Sally: That came about easily! Now we'd better think of one for you. You're invited too.
- Vanessa: Excellent! You can count on me to be there.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is curious.

Instructions: Circle the correct option to correctly complete the sentences.

1. Didn't / Aren't / Wouldn't people wear bell bottoms back then?
2. That's kind of gross, wasn't / don't / aren't you think?
3. Awesome! Didn't / Isn't / Wouldn't it be fun to drive around in one of those?
4. Weren't / Wasn't / Didn't that huge outdoor concert in the seventies?
5. What about your outfit? Aren't / Isn't / Don't we supposed to figure that out now?

Let's Practice!

What does Sally like to do?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Underline Sally's likes.

1. I went to breeze into the party and meet new people.
2. I want to try on that silk dress.
3. That old house turned into a bar. We should go!
4. I meet really nice people in team parties.
5. I love to wear lightweight clothes.

Extension Activity

Plan a Costume Party!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of a theme for a costume party (e.g. 1970s, famous actors, famous people from history).
- Explain why you have chosen that theme. Research the names of some of the items of clothing that people might wear to the party and make a list.
- Encourage a friend to come. (Use a negative question.)
- Tell the friend what he or she might wear.

Learning Points

Inseparable Phrasal Verbs

Phrasal verbs are two-part verbs consisting of a verb followed by an adverb particle (these look like prepositions, but do not have the same function in phrasal verbs). In some cases, it is not possible to separate the verb and the particle. These are called inseparable phrasal verbs.

Remember that the meaning of a phrasal verb is often very different from the two parts taken separately.

For example:

Breeze into has a figurative meaning.

A breeze is a wind, so it is a noun. When you add the particle into, breeze into means walk into a place easily and confidently like a breeze.

See about does not literally mean to use your eyes, but investigate or gather information.

Learning phrasal verbs is a lot like learning new vocabulary. You must memorize which phrasal verbs are inseparable and learn their meanings.

Examples:

- I want to breeze into the party wearing funky patterns.
- They must be disappointed in the way society has turned out.
- Mom's even seen about getting some seventies cars.
- That came about easily!
- They must be let down by the way society has turned out.

Negative Questions to Encourage Agreement

You use negative questions to confirm information you already know.

You can ask a negative question for confirmation.

Example:

Wouldn't it be fun to drive around in one of those cars? (I expect you to say yes.)

This is how negative questions with regular verbs in Simple Present and Simple Past are formed:

negative auxiliary + subject + main verb (base form)

Negative questions with regular verbs in Simple Present and Simple Past:

Examples:

That's kind of gross, don't you think?

Didn't people wear bell bottoms back then?

Negative auxiliary	Subject	Main Verb
Don't	you	think
Didn't	people	wear
Wouldn't	it	be

Examples:

- Didn't people wear bell bottoms back then?
- That's kind of gross, don't you think?
- Wouldn't it be fun to drive around in one of those?
- Wasn't that huge outdoor concert in the seventies?
