

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's talk about falling in love!

Learning Outcome

Describe events through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What are some symbols of romantic love?
- How fast do people fall in love?
- Why might it be a good idea to take a relationship slowly?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about feelings and reactions.
- I can talk about things that happen or things that happened.
- I can show I understand someone's feelings or situation.

Let's Explore!

Sally tries to stay grounded!

* "Grounded" is an adjective that means practical and realistic.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: You must be over the moon, Sally!

Sally: I am, but I want to stay grounded! Last night, Steve said he freed up some time to meet my family.

Vanessa: No way! Already? You said you didn't want to move too fast.

Sally: Sometimes things just gain momentum. We really like each other and he has a sense of humor that always cheers me up.

Vanessa: I understand. You must be very happy. Do you think you are falling in love?

Sally: We meet for coffee some mornings and after we visited Boston for the game, something just clicked, but I am trying not to rush into it. I don't want it all to run away with me.

Vanessa: Good for you! You sound very level-headed. You must be feeling very proud of yourself, but I can tell you are a bit anxious.

Sally: I just need to not take it so seriously. It hasn't turned into anything yet. I have to keep in touch with all my friends so I don't inadvertently fall out with them. You must be tired of hearing about it. What about you? Are you interested in anyone?

Vanessa: No, but I received a box of chocolates and a rose from a regular customer.

Sally: He must really care for you.

Vanessa: I suppose. It was kind, but I don't not really like red roses. I prefer lilies or peonies. Anyway, he isn't my type.

Sally: Yes, but red roses are a symbol of true love.

Let's Practice!

Let's review some phrasal verbs.

Instructions: Match the definition with the phrasal verb.

COLUMN A

1. Rush into
2. Run away
3. Fall out with
4. Care for
5. Turn into

COLUMN B

- a. to like
- b. to go too fast
- c. to change
- d. to escape
- e. to argue

Let's Practice!

Relationships can be so confusing!

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Write the correct words. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. You said you din't wuant to move too fast.
2. Sometimes things just geing momentum.
3. I just need to not take it so seriusy.
4. Somthig just clicked.
5. Are you interesting in anyone?
6. I received a boxes of chocolates and a rose.

Extension Activity

Research a love affair.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online to People Magazine, Us, or Hello.
- Read about famous people's love lives.
- Pick out 2 or 3 new expressions or phrasal verbs from the articles.
- Read the articles and find examples of the Simple Present and Simple Past.
- Tell a friend about the stories you read.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I read about things that happen in the present or the past.

☐ ☐

I read about feelings.

☐ ☐

I talk about the present and the past.

☐ ☐

I share the stories with a friend.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- over the moon (expression): greatly joyful
e.g. You must be over the moon, Sally!
- to free up (verb): to make something available that was not before e.g. Last night Steve said he freed up some time to meet my family.
- momentum (noun): the driving force or advancing strength of a development or course of events
e.g. Sometimes things just gain momentum.
- to rush into (verb): to do something without thinking on it carefully
e.g. I am trying not to rush into it.
- level-headed (adjective): balanced, stable
e.g. You sound very level-headed.
- to care for (verb): to like someone e.g. He must really care for you.
- peonies (noun): a large white, pink or red flower
e.g. I prefer peonies to roses.
- lilies (noun): a bell-shaped white flower
e.g. I love lilies.

Learning Points

Inseparable Phrasal Verbs

Phrasal verbs are two-part verbs consisting of a verb followed by an adverb particle (these look like prepositions, but do not have the same function in phrasal verbs). In some cases, it is not possible to separate the verb and the particle. These are called inseparable phrasal verbs.

Phrasal verb	Meaning
run away with	to escape
turned into	to change
rush into	go too fast
fall out with	to argue
care for	to like

Examples:

- I don't want it all to run away with me.
- It hasn't turned into anything yet
- I have to keep in touch with all my friends so I don't inadvertently fall out with them.
- He must really care for you.
- I am trying not to rush into it.

Learning Points

The Simple Present Tense and The Past Simple Tense

You use the Simple Present for regular and habitual activities, and for facts. You also use it to describe character and physical attributes. You also use the Simple Present with stative verbs (like, love, hate, believe).

You use the Simple Past to show that an action began and ended in the past.

Note: It is possible to use the Simple Past and the Simple Present in the same sentence.

Simple Present
Facts	Sometimes things just gain momentum.
Stative verbs	We really like each other.
Character or Physical Attributes	He has a sense of humor that always cheers me up.
Regular or Habitual Activities	We meet for coffee some mornings.
Simple Past	After we visited Boston for the game, something just clicked. It was kind, but I don't really like red roses.

